Yes, and it's not widely known, but I will be doing a bit of work while I'm avoiding the sun in Florida and if you need to contact me even via phone, that's fine.
 Call you a bit later?

Will you have time to touch base one last time before you leave for vacation today?

Thanks.

We just completed a call with a couple in our Study Area who has had a vapor mitigation system installed. We answered a number of their questions.

They do not use the internet and want to know who to call at IDEM to ask about testing at the commercial/industrial sites along Forsythe, where they live.

Should I refer them to you or to Ryan Clemme?

Also, after today I'm on leave until May 28, fyi.
